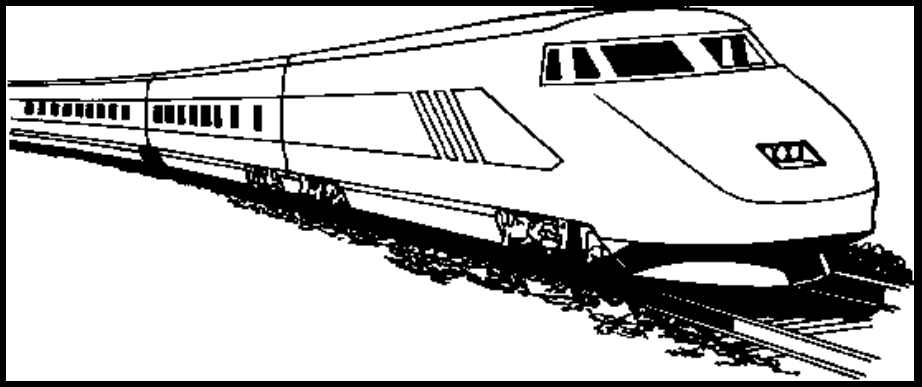
GENERAL SUPPORT CENTER EUROPE

TRAIN TRAVEL AWARENESS

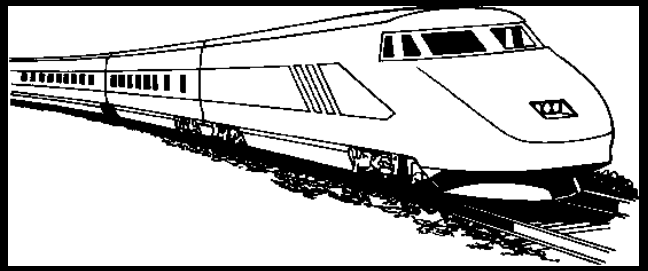


Created by:
GSCE Security Manager and
Force Protection Officer

UNCLASSIFIED

GENERAL SUPPORT CENTER EUROPE

TRAIN TRAVEL AWARENESS



GENERAL SUPPORT CENTER EUROPE

PRIOR TO DEPARTURE

- Make reservations in advance
- Pack and travel light.
- Keep luggage under your control as practicable
- Keep your tickets in inside jacket pocket or purse.
- For easy recognition, ensure you know the spelling and pronunciation of your destination when it is announced.

Created by:
GSCE Security Manager and
Force Protection Officer

UNCLASSIFIED

GENERAL SUPPORT CENTER EUROPE

PRIOR TO DEPARTURE

Always be aware of your surroundings. Never put your personal safety at risk.

Do not flash large sums of money.

Created by:
GSCE Security Manager and
Force Protection Officer

UNCLASSIFIED

GENERAL SUPPORT CENTER EUROPE

PRIOR TO DEPARTURE

Try not to schedule a late night or early morning arrival.

Arrange to be met at your arrival point whenever

Don’t let yourself get stranded at a rail station with no public transportation.

Created by:
GSCE Security Manager and
Force Protection Officer

UNCLASSIFIED

GENERAL SUPPORT CENTER EUROPE

IF YOU HAVE TO TRANSFER…

DETERMINE IN ADVANCE

- Any transfers (when, where, time, etc.)
- If your car will be switched to another train (when, where, time, etc.)
- Train number and departure of connecting trains

Ensure you board the RIGHT train for your intended destin

Created by:
GSCE Security Manager and
Force Protection Officer

UNCLASSIFIED

GENERAL SUPPORT CENTER EUROPE

ON BOARD THE TRAIN

•If possible, check unneeded luggage. Otherwise, keep your luggage w th you at all times.

•If you must leave your seat, either take your luggage with you or secure it to your seat or baggage rack.

•Try to get window seat. This provides a quick means of escape if it becon necessary.

Created by:
GSCE Security Manager and
Force Protection Officer

UNCLASSIFIED

GENERAL SUPPORT CENTER EUROPE

ON BOARD THE TRAIN

- Have necessary international documents (including passport) handy and ready for inspection by officials at each border crossing.

- Always keep your valuables with you at all times.

- In private compartments, keep doors locked. Identify individuals prior to allowing them access to your compartment.

Created by:
GSCE Security Manager and
Force Protection Officer

GENERAL SUPPORT CENTER EUROPE

ON BOARD THE TRAIN

- When in your compartment, be aware that some train thieves spray chemicals inside to render the occupant(s) unconscious in order to enter and steal valuables.

A locked door will at least keep them out.

Created by:
GSCE Security Manager and
Force Protection Officer

GENERAL SUPPORT CENTER EUROPE

ON BOARD THE TRAIN

- If you become suspicious of anyone or if someone bothers you, notify the conductor or other train personnel.

- If you feel you must leave the train temporarily at a stop other than your destination, make sure that you are not left behind.

Created by:
GSCE Security Manager and
Force Protection Officer

UNCLASSIFIED

GENERAL SUPPORT CENTER EUROPE

UPON ARRIVAL AT DESTINATION

- Ensure you depart the train at the correct location.
- Use only authorized taxis for transportation to your hotel or other destination.

Created by:
GSCE Security Manager and
Force Protection Officer

UNCLASSIFIED

GENERAL SUPPORT CENTER EUROPE

ILLNESS or MEDICAL EMERGENCY

Carry a summary of your medical history, to include past illnesses, allergies, and blood type.

Carry an ample supply of any prescription medication you are required to take.

Created by:
GSCE Security Manager and
Force Protection Officer

UNCLASSIFIED

GENERAL SUPPORT CENTER EUROPE

ILLNESS or MEDICAL EMERGENCY

Be sure to ask for the generic name of any prescription drug as brand names differ in other countries.

Always leave medicines in the original labeled containers.

Created by:
GSCE Security Manager and
Force Protection Officer

UNCLASSIFIED

GENERAL SUPPORT CENTER EUROPE

From time to time, all travelers experience frustrations such as crowded stations, hotels, unavailable rental cars, etc.

Common sense and good judgment should govern your reactions in such situations.

Stay calm….

REMEMBER: STAY ALERT AND ENJOY YOUR TRIP

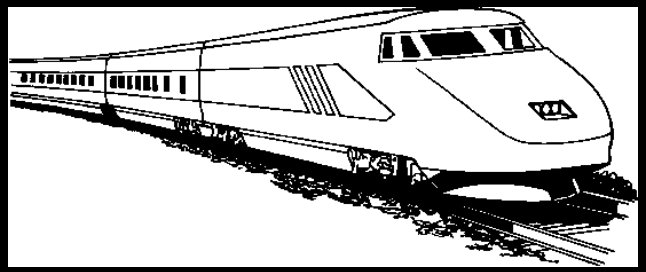
GENERAL SUPPORT CENTER EUROPE



TRAIN TRAVEL AWARENESS

Created by:
GSCE Security Manager and
Force Protection Officer

UNCLASSIFIED

GENERAL SUPPORT CENTER EUROPE